VICE-PRESIDENT'S SON ELOPES WITH PITTSBURG GIRL

Frederick Cole Fairbanks Runs Away to Steubenville, O., and Gets Married in a Parsonage to, Miss Nellie Scott.

ONLY OBJECTION WAS TO YOUTH OF THE COUPLE

He Was Graduated from Princeton in 1903 and Is Father's Secretary—Bride Popular in Smoky City Society—Fairbanks Notified by Telegraph and Forgiveness Asked.

STEUBENVILLE, O., Oct. 11.—Announcement was made here this afternoon that Frederick Cole Fairbanks, son of Vice-President Charles W. Fairbanks, had eloped to this city with Miss Nellie Scott, of Pittsburg, and had married her here.

The exact date of the wedding and the details have not yet been given out. All that is known is that the couple left Pittsburg secretly, came to Steubenville and were married. The ceremony is said to have been performed in a local parsonage, but the name of the clergyman who officiated has not been learned.

Parental objection was responsible for the runaway. The young man's distinguished father is said to have opposed the match. His son has notified him by wire of his act, and asked him to receive the pretty young bride as his daughter. The bride is the daughter of a prominent citizen of the east side district of Pittsburg. She has been popular in Pittsburg society since her debut. The youth of both the young people is believed to have been the chief cause of the objections which Vice-President Fairbanks entertained to their marriage. He had known for some time, as

HANGMAN GLARES AT BROUWER IN COURT

"Van Hise's Presence an Outrage," Says Physician on Trial for Murder of Wife.

(Special to The Evening World.) TOMS RIVER, N. J., Oct. 11.—A most peculiar feature of the Brouwer murder trial this afternoon was the appearance in court of Jacob Van Hise, the hangman, of Newark. He came in unannounced, and those who recognized him marvelled that he took a seat back of and within three feet of Dr. Brouwer, at whom he glared, taking no interest in anything else in court.

Mr. Arrowmith, of Brouwer's counsel, saw Van Hise and said to Brouwer: "There's Van Hise."

Brouwer turned and looked at the hangman, and said: "It's an outrage that he is permitted here."

Miss Elizabeth Hyer, sister of Mrs. Brouwer, was the chief witness against him this forenoon. She has been most bitter in her accusations against the doctor. Her testimony largely related to the quarrels between the couple, of the wife's complaints of abuse, and the doctor's threat of divorce. But all these were from three to five years ago.

Her brother, Trevonian Hyer, also told of trouble between the two. "That man is an awful liar," said Dr. Brouwer to his counsel. Neither of the Hyers were considered worthy of cross-examination by the defense.

Counsel for Brouwer says his own evidence when he goes on the stand, and that of Undertaker Westhall will clear him.

Nearly every witness for the State has weakened under cross-examination. The nurse's stories have resolved themselves into mere suspicions. Dr. Cate says he was convinced Mrs. Brouwer had kidney disease, and so filled out the death certificate.

This leaves the experts' evidence of poison and broken glass found in the body as the strongest points in the case.

The amount of arsenic found was less than a grain in all and only one-seventh of a grain in the stomach.

HEARST LIKELY TO THROW OVER JUDICIAL SLATE

Reported to Be Dissatisfied with the Murphy Selections.

SOME "UNFIT," HE SAYS.

Gilligan, Who Expected to Be Named, Openly Expresses Displeasure.

DELANY'S FRIENDS SORE

They Assert that Murphy Has Handed a Lemon to ex-Corporation Counsel.

TAMMANY NOMINATIONS.

SUPREME COURT—Leonard A. Giegerich, John W. Goff, Samuel Seabury, Charles W. Dayton, John W. Ford, M. Warley Plazek, Peter A. Hendrick, Mitchell L. Erlanger, John J. Brady and Charles L. Gay. GENERAL SESSIONS—Francis J. McAvoy and Thomas C. T. Crain. SUIROGATE—Frank T. Fitzgerald.

This ticket is not satisfactory to the Independence League and may result in an open break between Tammany Hall and the Hearst forces. The failure of Charles F. Murphy to put Thomas F. Gilligan on the ticket, after Gilligan had been told that he would get the nomination, has made the Hearst people mad. Mr. Hearst, before his departure for his up-State tour, today said to some of the men on the ticket are unfit.

The Executive Committee of the Independence League is in favor of putting a Judiciary ticket in the field in New York County. Independence League leaders say that Murphy tricked them in the Executive Committee when the slate was made up. They have been excited, they assert, that their organization would be represented on the ticket by Ford, Goff, Gilligan and Seabury. "Up to an hour before the convention was called," said Mr. Gilligan today, "I believed that I was to be nominated. I know that Mr. Hearst wanted me nominated and I know that Murphy knew it. I was told that my name would appear on the ticket."

The Independence League leaders are clamoring for more office. They want Hearst to cut away from Tammany Hall entirely and go it alone in this county. He will think the matter over on his ride up State to-day. The action of the Republican County Convention to-night will settle matters. If the programme arranged is followed and the Republican nomination is given to the Independence League, the people will prepare petitions and put out a ticket of their own. They have the best of the old party, because while the time for filing regular nominations expires tomorrow, the Hearst people will have made up to and including Oct. 17. While the Hearst people are sore, their soreness does not begin to compare with that of John J. Delany. His friends made a good fight for him in the election of the committee to select candidates last night, but he had no chance for his $10,000 job as Corporation Counsel, has been turned down by the organization, and now he is a poor fellow, who has been told that there was a new drink on the market called the "Delany Lemon."

DOWNTOWN BETTORS AWAIT HEARST CASH.

It was stated to-day that the Hearst backers expected to throw big wads of money into Wall street to-day to cover the cash that is being offered at odds on Hughes. Hughes backers were anxiously awaiting the coming of the long, dark green bundles.

BELMONT FOILS POOL-ROOMS ON RACING RESULTS

All the 'Phone Connections with the Track Are Cut Off, and News of the Results Came in Very Ragged Shape.

(Special to The Evening World.) BELMONT PARK RACE TRACK, Oct. 11.—August Belmont landed another solar plexus blow on the pool-rooms this afternoon. When they tried to call up their New York headquarters they found the wires "busy," and all their preparations to relay the winners went for naught. As a result the New York pool-rooms received a very ragged service.

Owing to the poor attendance at Belmont Park yesterday Mr. Belmont decided to cancel the race on the pool-room service and compel their patrons to come to the track to get the results. In anticipation of trouble the pool-rooms had erected an iron structure twenty-five feet high just outside of the track on private property. A man was stationed at the top of the structure with a strong glass. It was too high to have his view obstructed with canvas, so the bookmakers were ready to admit that they had been foiled.

But Mr. Belmont had a card up his sleeve which was sprung at the last minute. When the man in the tower tried to get a telephone connection to New York he was informed that the wires were all "busy."

"Guess Belmont has got to the telephone people," said the poolroom men as they hurried to get the news to New York by a more roundabout route. To-day the track people noticed an iron structure being built along the Long Island Railroad tracks, opposite the park. On investigation Sheriff Gilderleeve found it was on the property of Edward Hallock, a wealthy florist, of Floral Park. Charles Hallock, who rented the place for farming purposes, said the structure was to be a windmill, but on close questioning admitted that a man, whose name he did not know, wanted to put the windmill up. Several men were at work on the iron structure yesterday, and by 5 o'clock had it up 20 feet, with a small platform on top. A representative of the track looked over the structure and admitted that they had been beaten this time, as they could not put up a canvas so high as to obscure the view of those on the structure. In a barn a short distance away men were seen fixing a big telescope. District Attorney Cullen will be asked to stop them from working.

BROUWER TOOK FLOWERS TO PATIENTS.

In the Brouwer case at Toms River, N. J., to-day, the prosecution called witnesses to show that once while his wife was ill Dr. Brouwer visited women patients of his own in the Long Branch Hospital and also took them flowers. The defense laughed at this line of evidence.

KINNAN MURDER WITNESS SET FREE.

Mary Schippo, the principal witness in the Kinnan inquiry, to-day found not guilty by Magistrate Whitman in Harlem Court when Lawyer Gibson charged her with perjury.

FOUGHT MANIAC IN AMBULANCE.

For two and a half blocks this afternoon Dr. Rogers of Bellevue, fought with a maniac in an ambulance, with the horses going at full gallop. The patient, Maurice Eisenberg, twenty-one, of No. 123 Osborne avenue, of Bronxville, taken in a cab to-day at the Post-Graduate Hospital, slipped out of the ambulance and a gag and attacked the surgeon.

At the hospital it took four men to break Eisenberg's hold on Dr. Rogers. He was locked in the psychopathic ward.

BY FRANK W. THORP.

BELMONT PARK, Oct. 11.—The Hunter Handicap furnished a big surprise at Belmont Park this afternoon. After the withdrawal of Running Water, the fastest took Brookdale Nymph in bunches at 2 to 5, making her the hottest favorite of the day. Zienap, a 10-to-1 chance, went to the front at the start, made all the running, and standing off a rush of Belle of Pequest, won in a drive by a scant length. Brookdale Nymph was second in the stretch and she fast away.

The opening event was far from to be ridden by apprentice riders. Deutch was the favorite. He had all his speed, but in the final furlong, Gambrinus, who had hung to him all the way, out-gamed him and got home a winner by a short length. In this race there was a plunge on Mary B. Clark, but on the way to the post she threw her boy and the race was started without her.

St. Kevin won the steepchase in a drive from Mr. McCann, the good thing of the race, who was backed from 30 to 1 to 5 to 1. Ream was the favorite, but he had left his speed in the stall. Verger, the second choice, fell.

The third race was an easy win for Vox Populi, who, with Martin up, was a red-hot favorite. He simply breezed home an easy winner by eight lengths from Hard Shot, who was away in a hurry. Herman just n. 3d out Gen. Sherman, a 20 to 1 shot.

Momentum All the Way.

Momentum went to the front at the start of the fifth, made all the running, and won easily by three lengths from Monfort, who got up in time to beat Dollie Dollars a nose. Rosenmont, the heavily backed favorite, ran a bad race.

Winner Is Disqualified.

Guiding Star went to the front at the start, made all the running and won by a head from Sailor Boy, after carrying the latter out all the way. Miss Crawford was third, and a poor away. Guiding Star was disqualified for fouling Sailor Boy.
